To access the many features available on this website, you will need to register online with us and confirm your email address. This only needs to be done one time.

On the top center of most pages throughout the USBA website, you will find “My USBA Login”. This is the nerve center to access the main online features. Once you are registered and have confirmed your email address, you are able to login to “My USBA” by entering your email address and password.

If you have trouble logging in immediately after registering, then try logging out and back in again or closing your browser or internet connection. Then go back to www.USBA.net and try again. If you still have a problem, then please contact the webmaster or secretary right away by clicking the “Contact Us” link on the left side menu.

When you are logged in to “My USBA”, you are able to access the following features:

- Manage Your Profile: Change your address, phone numbers, etc. Change your email address or password. Allow/block what others can see in the Member Directory
- Membership Details: Renew Your Membership, check your status (Members Only)
- USBA Forum: Chat with others on the forum, create your own billiard shots, buy and sell billiard-related stuff, receive “Tips from the Pro’s” (paid members only) and reference all your membership benefits (paid members only).
- Tournaments: Register and pay for upcoming tournaments (NOT operational yet).
- Member Directory (paid members only): Get phone numbers or send an email to any past or current USBA member, provided that the member has not had their information blocked. Email addresses are never given out, but you can still send someone an email through our system provided that he/she has not blocked it.

Generally speaking, as long as you do not logout of “My USBA”, you will remain logged in, even if you shut down your computer.
